Wet in wet painting that Posey did under the instruction of Sarah Yeoman.

In April, Posey Gaines and Janette Meetze attend PACE (Plein Air Convention & Expo). It is the largest plein air event in the US with 1100 participants. This year it was held Santa Fe, NM. During the convention they had 2 hour demos from 7 different watercolor artists. Posey said that his head is still spinning!

"If I create from the heart, nearly everything works: if from the head, almost nothing."

APRIL'S PROGRAM

WITH GCWS MEMBER
WHITTODD

In less than an hour at our April meeting, we got to observe the creation of this inspiring painting by our own talented artist, Whit Todd!

Sharing his love for art and watercolor with his grandchildren, Jim Buchan encourages members to do the same.

"I didn't expect to recover from my second operation but since I did, I consider that I'm living on borrowed time. Every day that dawns is a gift to me and I take it in that way. I accept it gratefully without looking beyond it." ~ Henri Matisse

April's Program: Jeannette Hooks

Since her young teenage years, Jeanette had a desire to do portraits. Her early plans to be a dress designer vanished when the newspapers started printing pictures of clothes - not the drawings.

Working for a national photographer in St. Louis, MO, tenting sepia photos and seeing faces of all colors, highlights, and shading was so beneficial to her later portraits.

Corinthian Yacht Club

It was while volunteering at Little Light House that Jeanette realized that her desire to draw portraits was bigger than anything else she did in art. From the task of placing the children's photos in an album, she began drawing their portraits on tablet paper with a #2 pencil. Because the previous portrait she had drawn had indented the paper, when Jeanette shaded the director's daughter's glasses, the director was able to see her daughter's eyes in a portrait for the first time. The director, Marcia Mitchel, was thrilled!

Looking back, Jeanette realizes that God has a plan for our lives whether we realize it or not. She now draws portraits with the purpose of sharing the good news with people about Jesus' love for them, and they are God's masterpiece according to Ephesians 2:8-10.
