Jerry Wade Will Present The March Program

Jerry Wade's art career started in high school creating everything from outdoor signage to cartoons. After three years in the Navy and graduating from Southern Illinois University with an Associate Degree in Commercial Art, he worked as a technical illustrator for McDonnell Douglas Aircraft Company in Saint Louis. In 1972 he moved to Tulsa to work with a Christian organization and was the Director of Publications designing booklets, brochures and posters. In 1980 he began his own Graphic Design business called Art by Wade. In 1992 he changed the studio name to Design Service, Inc.

From pencils, to felt tip markers, to pen and ink, to airbrush, to Photoshop, to oils, to acrylics and finally watercolors...

Jerry wants to take you on a visual journey of what he learned along the way and how his commercial art experience translates to the watercolor artist he is today. See how many of the techniques he used in his Graphic winning artists information so that they can feature them on their social media!

Evelyn Petroski Demonstrated Portrait Painting At February's Meeting

GCWS member, DeDe Burgess, proved to be the perfect model for Evelyn Petroski's demonstration of portrait painting. Evelyn discussed the importance of proportion and shared the process of utilizing a proportional dividers tool to transfer the likeness of the model to paper. ■

Jim Buchan's Workshop Was A 'Snowing' Success

Thursday January 24, sixteen eager artists enjoyed a free (well, almost free) painting class by Jim Buchan. Jim demonstrated a variety of techniques for applying liquid masking, which was a major part of the painting style. The use of Washes, positive painting, and negative painting was implemented for the tree-filled background and snow covered foreground. It was an Informative and fun day. ■

April 1, no refunds will be given after that date. Once DeDe has 12 people that deposited a check, the workshop will be opened to the public

 September 3: Our annual members show will take place at The Hive in Jenks. September 3-delivery, September 5-reception from 6:00-8:00 pm, take down September 27.
