"This and That"

Karen Margrave Presenting at the April Meeting

Karen will be talking about and showing samples of various ways you can add texture to your paintings. In addition to texturing, she will include some interesting tidbits of "This and That." Karen is a founding member of GCWS. She was it's first program chairman and second president. She taught high school mathematics for 30 years. She has won ribbons at the Art Show and the Dog Show in Wichita and won first place in the GCWS Members show in 2014. After her retirement from Public School Teaching she taught watercolor classes to beginners at the Boston Avenue School of Continuing Education as well as private classes. ■

A Wealth of Information From Jerry Wade

On the right side of the photo below you will see the high school artwork that started Jerry's career.

Jerry did an excellent job of explaining what the job of a Commercial Artist entails and how that training segues into fine art and watercolor artist. He also told the group about held on Sunday, April 28th, in Stillwater. The artists reception is from 3:00 - 4:00 and the award ceremony begins at 4:00. Current Scholarship representative, Jo Lynch, would greatly appreciate having some fellow GCWS members attend the award ceremony. Please commit by next months meeting. Jo will provide directions to the ceremony location.

 May 7-10: A four day workshop with renown artist Steve Rogers AWS, NWS has been booked for May 7 through May 10. Steve is known for his paintings of boats and harbors. The fee is $345 for how to put together an in-house art show of their own works. Jerry does his personal show in November just prior to the Christmas holiday season. His presentation was illustrated with a variety of pieces of commercial art from past to present. Presentation well done GCWCS member Jerry Wade. ■
